

Village Comparison Document

Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

ABN: 86 504 771 740

Peninsula Palms

Retirement Village

Name of village: PENINSULA PALMS RETIREMENT VILLAGE

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out)
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at Peninsulapalms.com
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ongoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.

- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:
 - Queensland Retirement Village and Park Advice Service (QRVPAS) which provides free information and legal assistance for residents and prospective residents of retirement village. See www.caxton.org.au or phone 07 3214 6333.
 - The Queensland Law Society which can provide a list of lawyers who practice retirement village law. See www.qls.com.au or phone: 1300 367 757.

More information

- If you decide to move into a retirement village, the operator will provide you with a Prospective Costs Document for your selected unit, a residence contract and other legal documents.
- By law, you must have a copy of the Village Comparison Document, the Prospective Costs Document, the village by-laws, your residence contract and all attachments to your residence contract for at least 21 days before you and the operator enter into the residence contract. This is to give you time to read these documents carefully and seek professional advice about your legal and financial interests. You have the right to waive the 21-day period if you get legal advice from a Queensland lawyer about your contract.

The information in this Village Comparison Document is correct as at 12/12/2019 and applies to prospective residents.

Some of the information in this document may not apply to existing residence contracts.

COSTS AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT
Part 9 – Ingoing contribution - entry costs to live in the village

An ingoing contribution is the amount a prospective resident must pay under a residence contract to secure a right to reside in the retirement village. The ingoing contribution is also referred to as the sale price or purchase price. It does not include ongoing charges such as rent or other recurring fees.

9.1 What is the estimated ingoing contribution (sale price) range for all types of units in the village	Accommodation Unit	Range of ingoing contribution
	Independent living units

	- Two bedrooms	$289,000.00 to $360,000.00
	- Three bedrooms	$370,000.00 to $425,000.00
	Full range of ingoing contributions for all unit types		$220,000.00 to $425,000.00

9.2 Are there different financial options available for paying the ingoing contribution and exit fee or other fees and charges under a residence contract? If yes: specify or set out in a table how the contract options work	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Residents may select from four contract options. In selecting their preferred contract option, residents may elect to pay a lower ingoing contribution upon entry to the village, in return for paying a higher exit fee upon departure from the village. These contract options may be summarised as follows:
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

e.g. pay a higher ingoing contribution and less or no exit fee.	Contract Option	Percentage of Current List Price payable	Relevant Exit Fee Table – refer Item 11.1	Maximum Exit Fee Percentage (based on the Current List Price)
	Option A	100%	Table A	30%
	Option B	90%	Table B	32%
	Option C	80%	Table C	34%
	Option D	70%	Table D	36%
In this document, “Current List Price” means the ingoing contribution that would be payable by you if you entered into an “Option A” residence contract, at the time you are granted the licence to occupy the unit under your residence contract. The village operator reserves the right at any time to vary the contract options it offers other residents of the village (including any subsequent resident of your unit). Without limitation, the village operator’s right in this regard includes the right: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) to introduce or discontinue one or more contract options; (b) to change the units or number of units in respect of which the village operator offers one or more contract options; (c) not to offer one or more contract options in respect of one or more units; or (d) to vary the details of one or more of the contract options.
9.3 What other entry costs do residents need to pay?	<input type="checkbox"/> Transfer or stamp duty <input type="checkbox"/> Costs related to your residence contract <input type="checkbox"/> Costs related to any other contract e.g. <input type="checkbox"/> Advance payment of General Services Charge <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Administration cost of $400

Part 10 – Ongoing Costs - costs while living in the retirement village

General Services Charge: Residents pay this charge for the general services supplied or made available to residents in the village, which may include management and administration, gardening and general maintenance and other services or facilities for recreation and entertainment described at 7.1.

Maintenance Reserve Fund contribution: Residents pay this charge for maintaining and repairing (but not replacing) the village's capital items e.g. communal facilities, swimming pool. This fund may or may not cover maintaining or repairing items in your unit, depending on the terms of your residence contract.

The budgets for the General Services Charges Fund and the Maintenance Reserve Fund are set each financial year and these amounts can increase each year. The amount to be held in the Maintenance Reserve Fund is determined by the operator using a quantity surveyor's report.

Note: The following ongoing costs are all stated as weekly amounts to help you compare the costs of different villages. However, the billing period for these amounts may not be weekly.

11.2 What other exit costs do residents need to pay or contribute to?

- Sale costs for the unit
- Legal costs

Other costs

Part 12 – Reinstatement and renovation of the unit

12.1 Is the resident responsible for reinstatement of the unit when they leave the unit?

Yes No

Reinstatement work means replacements or repairs that are reasonably necessary to return the unit to the same condition it was in when the resident started occupation, apart from:

- fair wear and tear; and
- renovations and other changes to the condition of the unit carried out with agreement of the resident and operator.

Fair wear and tear includes a reasonable amount of wear and tear associated with the use of items commonly used in a retirement village. However, a resident is responsible for the cost of replacing a capital item of the retirement village if the resident deliberately damages the item or causes accelerated wear.

Entry and exit inspections and reports are undertaken by the operator and resident to assess the condition of the unit.

12.2 Is the resident responsible for renovation of the unit when they leave the unit?

No

Renovation means replacements or repairs other than reinstatement work.

By law, the operator is responsible for the cost of any renovation work on a former resident's unit, unless the residence contract provides for the resident to share in the capital gain on the sale of the resident's interest in the unit. Renovation costs are shared between the former resident and operator in the same proportion as any capital gain is to be shared under the residence contract.

Part 13– Capital gain or losses

13.1 When the resident's interest or right to reside in the unit is sold, does the resident share in the capital gain or capital loss on the resale of their unit?

No

Part 14 – Exit entitlement or buyback of freehold units

An exit entitlement is the amount the operator may be required to pay the former resident under a residence contract after the right to reside is terminated and the former resident has left the unit.

14.1 How is the exit entitlement which the operator will pay the resident worked out?	Ingoing Contribution paid by resident Minus the sum of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the Exit Fee calculated under the resident’s contract; • any outstanding or overdue maintenance reserve fund contributions, general service charges or personal service charges; • any outstanding amounts for the cost of repairs required during the term of the residence contract; • any outstanding amounts for the costs of Reinstatement Work; • if applicable, the difference between the agreed resale value and the amount of an offer for a right to reside accepted by the resident which is less than the agreed value; • any other amounts outstanding for payments made by Redcliffe Assembly on behalf of the resident under the residence contract or the Act; and • any other amounts owing or other adjustments, deductions, charges, interest or payments to be made under the residence contract or the Act.
14.2 When is the exit entitlement payable? [Note: Delete if no exit entitlement as freehold units only]	By law, the operator must pay the exit entitlement to a former resident on or before the earliest of the following days: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the day stated in the residence contract • the day stated in the residence contract <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ no date is stated in the residence contract • 14 days after the settlement of the sale of the right to reside in the unit to the next resident or the operator • 18 months after the termination date of the resident’s right to reside under the residence contract, even if the unit has not been resold, unless the operator has been granted an extension for payment by the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT). In addition, an operator is entitled to see probate or letters of administration before paying the exit entitlement of a former resident who has died.
14.3 What is the turnover of units for sale in the village?	5 accommodation units were vacant as at the end of the last financial year 7 accommodation units were resold during the last financial year

5 months was the average length of time to sell a unit over the last three financial years

Part 15– Financial management of the village

15.1 What is the financial status for the funds that the operator is required to maintain under the Retirement Villages Act 1999?

General Services Charges Fund for the last 3 years
Financial Year	Deficit/Surplus	Balance	Change from previous year
2016/17	$188,922	$555,813	-1.79%
2017/18	$156,899	$552,653	-0.57%
2018/19	$118,638	$580,138	+4.98%
Balance of Maintenance Reserve Fund for last financial year OR last quarter if no full financial year available		$127,609
Balance of Capital Replacement Fund for the last financial year OR last quarter if no full financial year available		$156,843
Percentage of a resident ingoing contribution applied to the Capital Replacement Fund		(As below)%
The operator pays a percentage of a resident’s ingoing contribution, as determined by a quantity surveyor’s report, to the Capital Replacement Fund. This fund is used for replacing the village’s capital items.		The village operator makes a contribution to the Capital Replacement Fund at the beginning of the financial year, although these contributions are not made from the Ingoing Contribution. The amount contributed annually is based on the quantity surveyor’s report which projects expenses and contributions over 10 years.

OR
 the village is not yet operating.

Part 16 – Insurance

The village operator must take out general insurance, to full replacement value, for the retirement village, including for:

- communal facilities; and
- the accommodation units, other than accommodation units owned by residents.

Residents contribute towards the cost of this insurance as part of the General Services Charge.

16.1 Is the resident responsible for arranging any insurance cover? Resident input

17.6 Does the village have a residents committee established under the Retirement Villages Act 1999?

Yes No

By law, residents are entitled to elect and form a residents committee to deal with the operator on behalf of residents about the day-to-day running of the village and any complaints or proposals raised by residents.
You may like to ask the village manager about an opportunity to talk with members of the resident committee about living in this village.

Part 18 – Accreditation

18.1 Is the village voluntarily accredited through an industry-based accreditation scheme?

No, village is not accredited
 Yes, village is voluntarily accredited through:

Note: Retirement village accreditation schemes are industry-based schemes. The Retirement Villages Act 1999 does not establish an accreditation scheme or standards for retirement villages.
